THE CAPITOL WHIRL

A Digest of Things
Political Occurring At Harrisburg

By International News Service
HARRISBURG, Jan. 14.—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin will observe the third anniversary of his inauguration January 19. . . . When Martin assumed control of the State government following the four-year term of former Gov. Arthur H. James, his first promise was that his administration would devote its full energy to the prosecution of the war. . . . He has cited some of the accomplishments so far during his term including tax reduction totaling approximately $45,000,000, new food production records and an anticipated budget surplus of $179,000,000.

One of the keystones of Governor Martin's administration has been his campaign for courteous state employees. . . . He has warned that ill-mannered, incompetent employees would be replaced with wide-awake qualified veterans. . . . As a reminder to employees, the state government telephone directories contain a message about courtesy. "We are all public servants and must perform our duties cheerfully, tactfully and with courtesy," the message said.

Numerous political leaders have predicted that if Congress or the President declares the war officially ended, a special session of the Legislature would be necessary to repeal scores of wartime laws. . . . Leaders close to Gov. Edward Martin insist that no extraordinary meeting would be held "unless a very definite emergency arises." . . . Many officials on Capitol Hill believe, however, that the session could not accomplish much and would only provide a "sounding-board" for the Democrats. . . . Two prime issues expected to come before the regular session in 1947 were a veterans' bonus and tax reduction.

The State Health Department has reported that between 2500 and 3000 women and children were participating each month in the Federal State Emergency Maternity and Infant Care program inaugurated in September, 1943. . . . Two hundred and sixty-nine hospitals have participated in the plan and 2572 physicians have rendered service, the Department added.

"The Federal Government has withdrawn the subsidy it paid to butter producers and prices go up—at a time when the public can stand the advance less easily than during the flush days of the false war prosperity," the "Right of Way" organ of the Pennsylvania Threshermen and Farmers' Protective Association, has commented editorially. "The whole government subsidy plan is nothing but a gigantic business game, designed to mislead deluded voters into support of false political doctrines."

BUTTER AND INFLATION

The clearest picture of what has been happening to American economy under the Truman administration is to be found by examining the arguments over the price of butter.

This story, as the ads say, "has everything." Every phase of Federal mismanagement is illustrated.

The scarcity of butter traces squarely to the Federal agency which has the unique record of making every situation worse which it tried to remedy—the OPA.

Butter has been a target of the Washington bureaucrats for many years. Long before the war, the National government was trying to take control of the dairy industry away from the States. The war gave the Washington boys their chance.

Most of the present meat and butter shortage traces back to the OPA's grain-price fight in the Chicago market in late 1943. The OPA won its argument. Grain for feeding purposes went off the market.

The result was the most disastrous deluge of pork, beef, and poultry the country has ever seen. The animals were slaughtered because farmers realized they would not be able to feed them over the winter, and would not be able to sell at prices which would cover the costs of holding them longer.

Dairy farmers were caught in a double squeeze. The government was holding milk prices at an inadequate level, and making up some of the loss by subsidies—a most unsatisfactory expedient, from the dairyman's point of view. And live cows would want to keep on eating, regardless of whether feed was available.

So thousands of dairy cows were slaughtered for beef. The resulting shortage of milk cows in production has never been corrected. Prices of dairy cattle have skyrocketed since then.

So much for the cause of the scarcity. It is on the lap of OPA.

Urges "All-Out" Effort In Nat'l Clothing Drive

Fred Herrmann has been named chairman of the local collection in connection with the national Victory Clothing Drive.

With details of the collection in Bristol borough having been delayed, Mr. Herrmann requests an "all-out" effort on the part of local residents in order that substantial clothing—such as undergarments, dresses, coats, shoes, suits, shirts, etc.—might be gathered in abundance for the unfortunates in war-torn countries.

Mr. Herrmann states that he is requesting for use as temporary collection centers all schools, clubs, churches, gasoline stations, garages, stores, taverns, fire stations, theatres, factories, barber shops, banks, etc.

"Please start now to gather all spare clothing, bedding, shoes and yard goods, and take them to the nearest store, church, bank, theatre, or other point. We will collect them from these places," advises Mr. Herrmann.

It is stated that shoes should be tied in pairs with strong cord or wire. "The committee in charge will appreciate it if all stores that have trucks will deliver their accumulations to Lanier Aircraft Corp., State Road, Croydon, or to Thomas Roakkas' store in the sixth ward." Others are asked to telephone Mr. Herrmann, Bristol 3361 or 2988.

"All persons who assisted in the last drive will be more than welcome to aid in the present drive, and are urged to contact the chairman at Bristol 2988."

TWO CITED BY OPA FOR OVERCHARGING

Edward L. Wallace, Bristol, and John Meszaros, Morrisville, Remit

WARNINGS ARE ISSUED

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 14.—The Bucks County Office of Price Administration announces that a Bristol merchant whom it is claimed overcharged on goods, has remitted three times the amount of the overcharge and been given a license warning notice; and that a Morrisville merchant has settled an adjustment, he having overcharged on potatoes and eggs.

The Bristol case is that of Edward L. Wallace, 119 Mill street, who according to the OPA overcharged on sweet potatoes, sirloin steaks, chuck roast and pancake flour in the sum of $39.50. "He remitted in accordance with the findings in his case to the U. S. government $118.50, or three times the amount of the overcharge, and was given a license warning notice by the district office," the OPA reports.

In the case of John Meszaros, 66 N. Penna. avenue, Morrisville, an adjustment for $25 has been settled. "His case involved selling New Jersey potatoes at two cents per pound over ceiling, and extra large eggs at six cents per dozen above the fixed price," the OPA reports.

According to the local OPA office there are 356 food outlets in Bucks county which are to be checked during the current month, and also 335 restaurants and food dispensing places which are being checked in the price control drive. These and stores selling other commodities form a continuous program of Bucks County Price Control Board here.

The details of work at the Doylestown office are so numerous, it is announced, that volunteer workers are sorely needed.

A special bulletin is being prepared by the publicity chairman to be sent to all service clubs, civic and other organizations in the county as part of the OPA appeal for control of prices and the prevention of inflation, and in an endeavor to break up the black market.

According to the testimony of federal and state officers twenty-four 4/5 bottles of what is stated to be Wilson whiskey were found in the trunk of Holzdorff's car which was near the Wilson bottling plant. Other bottles containing what officers say was whiskey were found at his home.

DOG'S DEVOTION

Queenie had her picture in the papers the other day. She is part Great Dane, part brindle bull. She has been waiting for two years at the baggage room in the Union Station in Denver for a master who left her there and never returned.
A longer vigil of devotion was revealed in 1936 with the death in Rock Island, Ill., of a collic who had waited twelve years for his master. In 1924 the pup had followed to the hospital a stretcher on which his master lay with a fractured skull. At the elevator the man reached down and stroked the dog, saying, "Good boy, Shep. Wait here." The man died, and his body was taken from the building through another door. But Shep waited loyally at the elevator until death released him from his trust.

Any lover of dogs knows other instances of their devotion. But few could be more celebrated than the case of Bobbie, a collic, who was brought from Oregon to Indiana, but missed his owner when the latter returned. Bobbie resolutely began a six months' transcontinental trek, dodging dog catchers, swimming icy rivers, crossing the Rockies in winter, and finally reaching his master in Oregon. The feat won the dog medals and gifts from this and other countries.

Man reciprocates in many ways this affection. One way is to provide legacies. A fox terrier in Detroit inherited an entire estate, including a house and automobile, and a spitz in Chicago fell heir to a sizable trust fund. Costly monuments are sometimes erected for dead pets, and in one case a woman had buried with her the ashes of a dog that had predeceased her by a decade.

Such acts are extreme, and that is one reason they make news. But over the last 5,000 years there has developed a sure bond of affection between man and his old friend. The dog is valued for his usefulness and cherished for his faithfulness and companionship. It is good to note these things at a time when there is so much inhumanity of man to man.

BITING OFF TOO MUCH

Much has been said in recent years in regard to the strategy of union leadership in winning victories in industrial disputes and in the political arena. Admittedly union strategy is to divide and conquer. Seven or eight years ago that strategy was employed effectively in forcing the industry to recognize the C. I. O. as the bargaining agency of labor. One plant at a time was tied up. Each plant fought alone and finally succumbed to the attack.

But the C. I. O. this time has taken on General Motors first. General Motors is a large producer of parts for other manufacturers and these other manufacturers are finding it difficult if not impossible to operate. The burden of idleness on the union membership is very great and workers will be unable to hold out much longer.

Japanese airfields are being converted into farms, or zero for the zero.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Apr. 17, 1890. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Parties who are interested in the new railroad from Easton to New Hope, to connect at Hartsville with the line there for Philadelphia, were in Easton on Saturday getting options on property and paying for right of way in several places. Line engineers say it is to be known as the Easton and Philadelphia Railroad. Work is to be commenced this week.

(Following items from Gazette of April and May, 1890.)
The street committee has already made a large sized hole in any appropriation it may receive for use during the year 1890. Yesterday the members of the committee with the approval of the burgess, made a contract with the New Jersey Iron and Steel Co., of Trenton, N. J., for an iron foot bridge over the canal at Mill street, for the sum of $500.

The initiatory steps for the formation of a board of trade for Bristol have been taken. Several preliminary meetings have been held by leading citizens and a meeting is announced for next Wednesday evening. . . . The special object of the contemplated board of trade is to "boom the town" by giving public and emphatic announcements to the outside world of the various and indisputable advantages that Bristol possesses as a specially favored locality for manufacturing and other industries, and as a healthy and charming place of residence.

An event of rare interest and pleasure was the celebration of the golden wedding of Hon. and Mrs. Symington Phillips on Monday . . . at their home on Radcliffe street.

Miss Matilda S. Booz was re-elected superintendent of the Bristol borough public school for a term of three years at a meeting of the board of directors held on last Tuesday evening. Her salary was fixed at $50 per month, which is a slight increase over that of the preceding term.

The latest scheme for uniting Camden to Philadelphia is by means of an 18 feet wide steel tube, laid at the bottom of the river. It is claimed that this tube can be laid down complete for $700,000, which would be far cheaper than a bridge and last longer. It would also be far cheaper and more easily constructed.

One Plant in Area Is Tied Up by Strike

ceived notice that a strike was called for January 14th. In anticipation of a close-down officials had water drained from the heating system, and sanitary and drinking water lines, to prevent any freeze-ups during the period of an anticipated strike.

Thus when the strike was postponed and workmen appeared this morning to take up their tasks the firm posted notices to the effect that water lines and heating system will be placed in operation for return of employees by Wednesday morning.

Approximately 300 are affected at the Badenhausen plant.

The steel industry went about the job of restoring full production today after being granted a week's reprieve in the scheduled strike of 700,000 steel workers.

Operations generally had been curtailed, furnaces banked and many workers sent home in anticipation of a walkout at midnight last night which was averted by the intervention of President Truman.

Industry representatives in Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Chicago and other steel areas indicated it would take several days to resume full production.

Meantime, President Truman and his top advisers maintained high hopes that the steel wage dispute will be settled before the new strike deadline arrives—midnight Jan. 20.

Bellerby-Kolbert Nuptial Ceremony Week-End Event

CROYDON, Jan. 14.—An attractive wedding was solemnized in St. Thomas Aquinas Church at two o'clock on Saturday when Miss Madeline Kolbert was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Thomas Bellerby. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Teresa Kaganich, 4th avenue, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Sara Smith, Rose avenue. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Albert Kolbert. The Rev. Fr. Joseph B. Diamond was the officiating clergyman. Organ music was provided by Miss Elizabeth Tryon. Miss Katherine Sautner, Philadelphia, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in light blue velvet, the gown being cut on princess lines with sweetheart neckline. She wore a pink fingertip veil and carried pink roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Mae Hawthorn, was gowned in ashes of roses net over taffeta. She wore a matching bonnet of net and taffeta, and carried red roses. Her gown was styled with a tight bodice and bouffant skirt.

The bride's gown was white net over satin, styled with a tight bodice, keyhole neckline, and bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of seed pearls, and the bridal bouquet was of white roses.

The best man was the groom's brother, Mr. Thomas Bellerby. Another brother, Mr. Harry Bellerby, served as usher.

A reception was held at the V. F. W. post home, 150 guests attending.

The couple left for a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains. They will reside temporarily with the bride's mother. Mr. Bellerby, a former corporal in the U. S. Army, has just returned from three years service, one of which was spent overseas.

Today's Quiet Moment

By Lehman Strauss
Pastor, Calvary Baptist Church

O Lord, in these days of national crisis brought about by internal strife, we beseech thee to look, in mercy, upon the needs of America. Grant that our national leaders shall acknowledge the Saviourhood and Lordship of Thy Son Jesus Christ, and in so doing may they look unto Thee for wisdom. Hear us, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

"If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him." (James 1:5).

Violet Sperling, a teacher in the high school building.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gillies, East Circle, were recent visitors of Mrs. Gillies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zwicker, Sr., Philadelphia. S/Sgt. Richard Zwicker, Jr., brother of Mrs. Gillies, just returned from duty in the Pacific, and has received his honorable discharge after four years of service.

Marion Tomlinson, McKinley street, spent a few days last week in Morrisville visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Nolan.

GIRLS ALSO LOSE TILT

Wick's Engineering Team of Camden Win Contest
By Two Points

The Rohm and Haas team used a patched up lineup yesterday afternoon as it was downed by the Roebbling Post, No. 39, American Legion, on the Maple Beach floor. Final score was 74-52. In the preliminary game, the Rohm and Haas girls' team lost a close one to the Wick's Engineering team, of Camden, 43-41.

The absence of Ralph Cahall and DeWitt was a big factor in the Rohm and Haas defeat but the team did well in chalking up the 52 points. Manager Castor used "Billy" Gallagher and "Rip" Kelly in his line-up, it being the first game for this pair this season.

High scorers for the Bristol team were Joe Roe and "Angie" Everett who counted 12 and 15 points, respectively. George Magy was high for the Jersey boys with 16 points although "Inky" Linzenbold and Urban had 12 each.

The visitors showed great marksmanship from the foul mark in dropping in 16 out of their 20 foul shots with Nick Magyar getting six out of six.

The Wick's Engineering girls substituted for R.C.A. of Camden, and proved interesting opponents for the Rohm and Haas lasses.

With a little over a minute remaining to be played, Berlinghof scored a field goal to put Rohm and Haas in the lead, 41-40, but Maxwell scored a beautiful goal from side court to give the Camden team the lead, 42-41, and on the last play of the game, Bailey was fouled and converted to make the score, 43-41.

Berlinghof scored 24 of the Rohm and Haas points while Ruth Bailey had 15 points for Wick's Engineering.

RAMBLERS TO MEET
HARRIMAN TONIGHT

Whether the Ramblers will still have a chance to get in the playoffs of the Bristol Youth League will depend on their showing with the Harriman A. C. tonight in the first game on the Mutual Aid floor. In the second tilt, Catholic Boys Club plays the Fifth Ward Sports.

The Ramblers have lost five games, four of which were forfeited, and still have seven to play. A victory in all their remaining contests will give them a total of 9 and five for the season which will practically put them in the playoffs.

However, if the Ramblers are beaten by the sixth ward aggregation, then their playoff hopes will be faded as an eight to six average will hardly qualify a team for fourth place.

Freddie Costantini and "Lefty" DiTanna, ace scorers of the league and the Ramblers, are anxious to beat the Harriman outfit and are determined to stop both Praksta and Lentini, the leading scorers of the Harriman team.

The Catholic Boys Club is the favorite over the Fifth Ward Sports who have won but one game in six. Catholic is even for the season with three and three. Catholic lost an opportunity of moving into a tie for second place by losing to the Eagles last Thursday night.

CONSERVATIONISTS OF NOTE ADDRESS
SPORTSMEN

Semi-Annual Meeting of
S. E. Division of Penna.
Held at County Seat

BUCKS COUNTY HOST

Col. Nicholas Biddle and Charles A. French Are
The Speakers

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 14—Two of Pennsylvania's most noted conservationists, Col. Nicholas Biddle, member of the Game Commission and former president of that body, and Charles A. French, Commissioner of Fisheries and chairman of the Fish Commission, spoke at the semi-annual meeting of the S. E. Division unit of the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs.

The Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs was the host to the delegates from the southeastern counties of the State when both morning and afternoon sessions were held at the Doylestown Country Club yesterday.

Col. Biddle, whose home is in Bethayres, and who has been a member of the Game Commission for 10 years, predicted a better pheasant season for 1946.

Praising the work of clubs in raising day-old chicks, the speaker said that sportsmen's organizations will once again become much more active in this program.

A practical demonstration on how to avoid gun accidents was presented by the Commissioner with his own gun, a 20-gauge double barrel. A discussion of both loads and gauges was presented with the colonel pointing out that both the 16 and 20-gauge shotguns, using moderate loads, are just as effective in the field as the 12-gauge using maximum loads.

Commissioner French greeted the convention with the news that 1946 should be one of the best fishing seasons in years, with more and finer trout now on hand at the hatcheries for stocking than ever before in the history of the Fish Commission.

He pointed out that the truck fleet used by the commission has been reduced since the start of the war, this factor handicapping the stocking program to some extent.

At the start of the war the commission owned and operated 42 trucks. At the present moment there are 26 in use.

Among the resolutions adopted by the Division was one reiterating the unit's stand on favoring an increase of 50c in the fishing license, the additional amount to be used for the acquisition and maintenance of public fishing rights. A doe season similar to the one just ended and covering the same southeastern part of the state, was also endorsed by the meeting.

Charles H. Neph, Allentown, the division chairman, was in charge of the meeting. Allan Woolf, Morrisville, John Patteroff, Buckingham, and Edward Balderston, Morrisville, officers of the Bucks County unit, were in charge of arrangements for the meeting.
